DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-2,4-10,12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by 5,234,890 to Burberry et al. Burberry discloses a multilayer carrier wherein each layer has a different absorption capacity for at least one wavelength and wherein the absorption capacity of at least one wavelength is at least partially reduced as a result of laser radiation, the color pigments of the layers at least partly lose their absorption capacity for the wavelength under the influence of laser radiation and the method therewith (col. 2 lines 35-45). Burberry further discloses at least one of the layers is at least partially transparent to visible light and wherein the layers being arranged on a white substrate layer (col. 5 lines 40-68 and col. 6 lines 1-10).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. This is simply art of interest and was not used to reject any claims in this office action.
